SPANISH & LATIN AMERICAN STUDIES
Interdisciplinary Minor

DEGREE PLAN WORKSHEET

This worksheet is designed to help students and advisors understand and track the degree requirements to complete a minor in Spanish & Latin American Studies.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Lower-level courses (fulfilled through classes or proficiency test)</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>SPAN 1401 – Elementary Spanish I</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>SPAN 1402 – Elementary Spanish II</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>SPAN 2303 – Intermediate Spanish I</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>SPAN 2304 – Intermediate Spanish II</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>TOTAL CREDITS: 14 credits</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Upper-division courses (may include disciplinary and interdisciplinary classes*)</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1. Required – SPAN 3310 – Gateway to Hispanic Studies</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>This course is offered every other fall, odd-numbered years</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>3.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>4.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>TOTAL CREDITS: 12 credits</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

*At least 2 of 4 upper-division classes must be taken in Spanish language

See the back of this page for a list of upper-division courses that may be applied toward toward the SPLA Minor.

For questions about the SPLA minor, the proficiency exam, or the approved interdisciplinary coursework options available each semester at SU, please contact the Program Coordinator for Spanish & Latin American Studies:

Dr. Maureen Russo Rodríguez mrusso@schreiner.edu
SPANISH & LATIN AMERICAN STUDIES
Interdisciplinary Minor

Designated upper-division courses: No further forms process or approval is needed to count these courses toward the SPLA minor.

SPAN 3301, 3302, 3303, 3304, 3305, 3310, 4370 (or any 3000+ level course in SPAN)
LANG 3XXX (or any 3000+ level course offered in Spanish through the Texas Language Consortium)
HIST 3352  The History of Mexico
POLS 3384  Regional Study: Latin America

Non-designated upper-division courses: There are many classes that can offer students an opportunity to complete substantive upper-level coursework on topics related to Spanish & Latin American Studies within the context of a broader coursework focus. In these cases, the student must complete a simple forms approval process with the SPLA Program Coordinator and the instructor of the course in question in order to apply for credit toward an SPLA minor.

MGMT 3340  Borderless Business
COMM 3320  Intercultural Communication
COMM 4310  Conflict and Communication
EDUC 4305  Curriculum & Assessment (EC-6)
EDUC 4307  Curriculum & Assessment (7-12)
ENGL 4335  Studies in World Literature
ENGL 4363  Religion in Literature & Film
ENGL 4365  LBGT Studies
FIN 3364  International Finance & Economy of Microfinance
HIST 3331  Europe in the World Wars
HIST 3352  History of Mexico
HIST 4370  U.S. Foreign Relations with the Global South since 1945
IDST 4340  Problems & Solutions in Global Society
MKTG 3322  International Marketing
PBHL 3371  Introduction to Public Health
PBHL 3372  Global Health
PBHL 4355  Health Policy
PBHL 4374  Community Health (*travel course)
POLS 3372  International Law
POLS 3381  Globalization Theories, Issues & Trends
POLS 3382  Comparative International Political Systems
POLS 3383  International Political Economy
POLS 3384  Regional Study: Latin America
PSYC 4370  Intercultural Psychology
RDNG 3309  Disciplinary Literacy
RDNG 3310  Reading and Language Arts
TXST 3330  Texas Culture, Literature, and Song

NOTE: The above list is not comprehensive. Students should be encouraged to contact the Program Coordinator about potential coursework options even if they do not appear here.