

Application for Participation in the 2020-2021 Cohort of the Edington Society

Due: August 14th, by email, to ctmccormick@schreiner.edu

Name: _____

Position/Title: _____

Supervisor: _____

Year Hired at Schreiner: _____

Mission: The Edington Society provides faculty and staff the opportunity to explore the University's Presbyterian heritage and its commitment to the Reformed tradition; the experience of meaningful work and purposeful lives in a changing global society; and vocation/calling as both a concept and a practice.

Vision: Members of the Edington Society will enable the Schreiner community to live into the mission, history, values, and identity of the University and enable themselves to live into a professional identity that is vocationally driven.

Describe what you like best about your current job:

Describe what your greatest challenge is in your current job:

Reflecting on the mission and the vision of the Edington Society, explain why you would like to be a member of the next cohort and serve as a mentor in the following year to the subsequent cohort. How do you hope this experience impacts your professional life? How do you hope it impacts you outside of your job responsibilities?